To the Householder.

You are requested to insert the particulars specified on the other page, respecting all the persons who slept or abode in your house on the night of March 30th, in compliance with an Act which passed the House of Commons, and the House of Lords, in the last Session of Parliament, and received the assent of Her Majesty, the Queen, on the 3rd of August, 1850.

This Paper will be called for on Monday, March 31st, by the appointed Officers, and it will save trouble if, as the Act requires, you have the answers written in the proper columns by that time. It is his duty to verify the facts, and if you have omitted to comply with the above Instructions, to record them at your residence on that day.

Persons who refuse to give correct Information, incur a Penalty of Five Pounds, besides the Inconveniences and Manners of appearing before two Justices of the Peace, and being convicted of having made a wilful mis-statement of age, or of any of the other particulars.

The Return is required to enable the Secretary of State to complete the Census; which is to show the number of the population—its arrangement by ages and families in different scales of proprietorships, employments, and trades—its distribution over the country in villages, towns, and cities—their increase and progress in the last ten years.

GEORGE GRAHAM,

Registrar General.

INSTRUCTIONS for filling up the Column headed "RANK, PROFESSION, OR OCCUPATION."

The term FARMER to be applied only to the occupier or lead who is to be returned as a Farmer of [317] acres, employing [12] labourers; the number of acres, and of labouring and out-door labourers, on March 31st, being in all cases inserted. Some or daughters employed at home or on the farm, may be returned—"Farmer's Son," "Farmer's Daughter."

Where the trade is much sub-divided, both trade and branch are to be returned thus—"Wool-factory—Finisher.

A person following more than one distinct trade should insert his occupation in the order of its importance.

MESSENGEERS, PORTERS, LABOURERS, and SERVANTS, to be described according to the place and nature of their employment.

Persons following no Profession, Trade, or calling, and holding no public office, but deriving their income chiefly from land, houses, mines, or other real property, from dividends, interest of money, annuities, &c., may designate themselves "Landed Proprietor," "Proprietor of Iron Mines," "Proprietor of House," "Furniture," "Amusement," &c., as the case may be. Persons of advanced age who have no regular business to be entered thus—"Retired Silk Merchant," "Retired Watchmaker," &c.

ALMSPEOPLE, and persons in the receipt of parish relief, should, after being described as such, have their previous occupations inserted.

The occupations of women who are regularly employed from home, or in a house, in any but domestic duties, to be distinctly recorded. So also of children and young persons. Against the names of children above five years of age, of daily attending school, or receiving regular tuition under a master or governess at home, write "School," and in the latter case add "at home."
